On Wednesday this week, the upper school enjoyed a visit from the performance poet, David Mason who totally inspired a large number of his audience. His visit is part of the Wymondham Cluster writing project which you will hear more about as the year goes on.

'Seaweed' by Millie Edge

Seaweed wraps around the sea's arms, opening up to the world.

Seaweed wiggles its way out of a puzzle through the waves.

Seaweed swerves in the fight against the enemy.

Seaweed floats in the unknown, stuck to the bottom of the sea,

But never lets go of his friends.

6th February 2015

Dear Parents,

Tag Rugby (report by Freya Myhill).

The team went to Wymondham College to play in the South Norfolk Schools tournament. Everyone played as a team, no one was left out and we had a great team. We played 5 games and came first in our group, so after that it was knock out time! We made it to the finals against Robert Kett, which had a nail biting finish, going to extra time! At the end of the afternoon we went to hear the results. Guess what, we won!

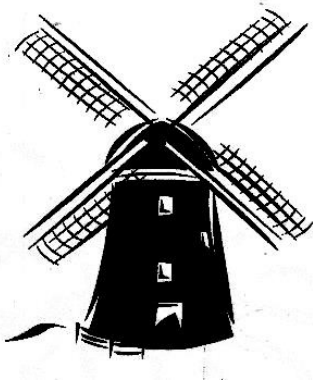

Thank you to the parents for the hot chocolate, oranges and support. Finally a big thank you to our coach, Mr Pattison, for giving up his time to train us. We are now off to the Norfolk tournament in March, representing South Norfolk Schools.

Cross Country

Well done to our team of cross country runners who showed all the qualities needed to “Be the Best You Can Be” on Tuesday in the area competition. Madison Kelly and Nelly Ong achieved high enough positions to be put forward to the Norfolk championship, so an especial well done to them.
