

What to do today

1. Read 'Aliens Stole My Underpants'

Ask someone to read the poem with you, taking turns to read, verse by verse. Enjoy it together.

2. Answer questions about the poem

- Read Comprehension Questions, making sure you understand what is being asked.
- Write your answers in complete sentences.

3. Now for some writing

What do you think the alien looked like?

Use My Alien. Write a paragraph describing it.

Try these Fun-Time Extras

- Draw the alien
- Write about what you do next - together!

Aliens Stole My Underpants

To understand the ways of alien beings is hard and I've never worked it out why they landed in my backyard.

And I've always wondered why on their journey from the stars, these aliens stole my underpants and took them back to Mars.

They came on a Monday night
when the weekend wash had been done, pegged out on the line
to be dried by the morning sun.

Mrs Driver from next door was a witness at the scene when aliens snatched my underpants-
I'm glad that they were clean!

It seems they were quite choosy
as nothing else was taken.
Do aliens wear underpants or were they just mistaken?

I think I have a theory
as to what they wanted them for,
they needed to block off a draught blowing in through the spacecraft door.

Or maybe some Mars museum
wanted items bought back from space.
Just think, my pair of Y-fronts displayed in their own glass case.

And on the label beneath would be written where they got 'em and how such funny underwear once covered an Earthling's bottom!

By Brian Moses

Aliens Stole My Underpants Comprehension Questions

1. When did the aliens come?

2. Why did they choose that day?

3. Who was a witness as the aliens stole the underpants?

4. What else did they take from the line?

5. Why does the poet finally decide that aliens stole his underpants?

The Alien

What does it look like? How many arms and legs? What colour?

How many eyes? How many ears?

Where did it come from?

Write about how you imagine the alien.

A large rectangular area for writing, framed by a decorative border of colorful puzzle pieces in shades of blue, yellow, red, and grey. The writing area is divided into ten horizontal lines by thin grey lines, providing a guide for text entry.