Dear Families,

As everyone has begun to open the doors in their advent calendars, so we have begun our countdown to Christmas at school. Year R&1 are practising their nativity performance, the other year groups are singing carols for the Abbey and the Friends are hard at work preparing for the Christmas Fair and Market.

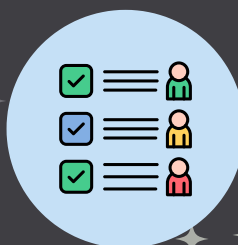

Our giant Christmas tree in the school hall, kindly donated by the Shutte family, will be available for collection if anyone would like to have it from the end of term on the afternoon of the 20th. Please contact the school office if you would like a 10-foot tree!

Don't forget that next week is Christmas Lunch on Wednesday 11th if you haven't already booked it for your child.

If they would like to, pupils may wear Christmas jumpers on Wednesday too but otherwise normal school uniform please.
